

Newman Sienna Netball Club

Coaches Code of Conduct

- Insist that players understand and abide by the principles of good sportsmanship.
- Remember that young people participate for pleasure and winning is only part of the fun.
- Be reasonable in your demands on the players time, energy and enthusiasm.
- Operate within the rules and spirit of netball and teach your players to do the same.
- Ensure that the time players spend with you, is a positive experience.
- Respect the talent, developmental stage and goals of each player and encourage them with positive and constructive feedback.
- Be mindful that all young people are deserving of equal attention/opportunities and playing time.
- Ensure that equipment and facilities meet safety standards and are appropriate to the age and ability of all players.
- Display control, respect and professionalism towards all involved within the sport. Encourage players to do the same.
- Show concern and caution towards sick and injured players. Follow medical advice as to when a player can recommence training or game play.
- Ensure coaching methods or practices do not impact on the long term health or physical development of players.
- Obtain relevant experience/qualifications and keep up to date with recommended coaching practices, appropriate to players.
- Any physical contact with a young person should be appropriate to the situation and necessary for the player's skill development.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person, regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- Respect the decisions of umpires, officials, other coaches and administrators.

I/we have read and agree to follow the NSNC Coaches Code of Conduct, when coaching a netball team at Newman Sienna Netball Club.
